Dear Citizen's Assembly on Electoral Reform:

Thank-you for the forum updates One small matter regarding my surname: H. H. Dahl not Datz With all this experimental cloning I'd have to think it would change my heritage by some one's historical mistake. I'm a genealogy enthusiast and these surname/given name errors can send us for more than one loop~~s~~ - hours & hours of wait time!

I might as well also add my insights after attending, one of the ~~sees~~ in Victoria BC -2-what I am realizing more & more is this reform reaches every aspect of our citizens lives and movements. No quick-fixes please.

The way it was silent a certain segment of population. No there are vibes of fear expressed that the new way is going to be more expensive / less effective / shaky / irrelevant ~~all~~ all for who's benefit - the minority rich, sexist, power suited corporate & businessmen / lawyers / get the point. This June 28th election with all the citizens' frustration / see a lack of leadership / questioning secret agendas, and everything else promised now and then thrown out after they are voted in. Don't we know after 40-60 years of what we seen with our own eyes/heard with our own ears too!

People think they know it from A to "Zee" and yet one can see in no time at all who the handful of people who are the ones directing "the show."

I would like to see more of an institute of civic leadership forums. Adult literacy/immigrant basic English is so necessary. In this AM on CBC they did a document on Brooks AB where there's the 3rd largest animal slaughter house.

Many of the workers are from outside of Canada. They don't speak English or understand the cultural & human rights, so often taken for granted by most of us.

Suppression/oppression/poverty racism/^{continual} insults are still as real today as probably during the ~~escapes~~ of the US/Canada civil war & aftermath. LAUBACH LITERACY - a one to-one person adult literacy program used around the world could well find its inclusion so all Canadian could be proud to be adult literate & So we've just come thru' the Federal Election with its surprises and needs for improvements. May we not be short-sighted, filled with greed, or very limited in our futuristic vision of democratic justice for all Hilda Dahl MTC
